

Cluck Old Hen

Traditional American Song

$\text{♩} = 100$

Tenor

8 I had an old hen and her name was Peg, best old hen that

4 ev-er laid an egg. She roamed free out - side of her pen, and she laid more eggs than

8 an-y oth-er hen. Cluck old hen, cluck and sing, lay a thou-sand eggs in the 12 win-ter and spring. Cluck old hen, cluck and squall, lay a thou-sand more in the 16 sum-mer and-fall. My old hen's a good old hen, she lays eggs for the ra-il road men.

21 Some-times one, some-times two, some-times e-nough for the whole-dang crew.

25 Cluck old hen, cluck and sing, lay a thou-sand eggs in the win-ter and spring.

29 Cluck old hen, cluck and squall, lay a thou-sand more in the sum-mer and-fall.
